

Fête de la Musique -THINK MUSIC. THINK ALBION.

SAVE THIS DATE!

CELEBRATE THE ARRIVAL OF SUMMER WITH MUSIC!

You are invited to attend the third annual Fete de la Musique – THINK MUSIC. THINK ALBION. on Sunday, June 21, 2009.

If you organize fairs and festivals or plan events where music is key, you won't want to miss this opportunity to discover talented amateur, part-time professionals and established performing artists of all ages and backgrounds, in every genre- free!

From noon – midnight on Sunday, June 21 downtown sidewalks and parks in Albion will become impromptu musical stages, dance floors, and social meeting points.

“Think Music. Think Albion.” is based on France's Fete de la Musique, which has been a great success for 27years. Since it was inaugurated, the festival has become an international phenomenon, celebrated on the same day in 340 cities in 110 countries, including Germany, Italy, Egypt, Syria, Morocco, Australia, Vietnam, Congo, Cameroon, Togo, Columbia, Chile, Mongolia, and Japan and now in the United States. (Check it out online at Wikipedia.org or www.fetedelamusique.culture.fr)

Also, this year we will be participating in “Playing For Change: Peace Through Music”, a multimedia movement created to inspire, connect, and bring peace around the world. Each group will be asked to play either “All Night Long” by Lionel Ritchie, “I Can't Help Myself” by the Four Tops or “I Second That Emotion” by The Temptations in their own style once during their performance in celebration of Motown's 50th anniversary. The performance will be videotaped for all to see on the Internet.

The sponsors do not pay the musicians - nor do the musicians pay the sponsors. The sponsors have set up the framework by working with the City and downtown businesses, coordinating the “concerts” and publicizing the event with posters and earned media stories.

All concerts will be free and open to the public. In the event of rain, concerts may take place inside a building lobby or store front.

For informational and organizational purposes, we ask that you return the attached form at your earliest convenience.
